

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
June 8, 2010

PHOTO RELEASE:
$510,000 raised at Forget Me Not Golf Tournament

Vancouver, BC – The 16th annual Forget Me Not Golf Tournament raised $510,000 for the Alzheimer Society of B.C. to support families impacted by dementia and fund research for a cure. Sponsors include Canaccord Genuity, BMO Nesbitt Burns, TMX, Scotia Capital, UBS, CIBC World Markets, RBC Capital Markets, TD Securities, S&R Sawmills, ITG, Bloomberg, GMP Securities, and Manulife Financial.

To date, the tournament has raised more than $6 million for the cause.

Photo caption: The volunteer golf committee for the Forget Me Not Golf Tournament includes representatives from corporate leaders such as Connor, Clark and Lunn, Russell Lane & Associates, Gowlings, and KHD Humboldt Wedag.

-30-

The Alzheimer Society of B.C. is the only province-wide source for support and education of Alzheimer's disease and related dementias. The Society is a leading voice for change in the delivery of dementia care in the province, provides support services, education programs and information through resource centres in 18 communities across British Columbia, and funds research to find a cure. To learn more about the Alzheimer Society of B.C., go to www.alzheimerbc.org.

For more information, please contact:

Ruby Ng
Director, Marketing & Communications
T: 604.742.4919
C: 604.828.9516
E: rng@alzheimerbc.org